

Dublin City Markets

Tel: 087-6115016

email: food@dublincitymarkets.com website: www.dublincitymarkets.com

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY TO MARKETS - Please read these carefully.

Note: By reading the following conditions of entry into this market it is deemed that you understand that you must accept the conditions and abide by them to secure a place in the market and that if you break the conditions of entry you will forfeit your place in the market. The organisers decision is final in this matter.

STALL HOLDERS ARE INVITED TO:

- 1 Supply name, address, telephone number, email of principal stall holder.
- 2 INSURANCE: in order to allow a stall holder to trade in the market the organisers must have a copy of a valid insurance certificate for
 - a. Public liability cover up to a minimum of 1.4 million euro
 - b. Product Liability Cover

People working for stall holders or their agents must be covered by stall holders insurance.

The above insurance copy must be given to the organisers on entry into the market. For yearly renewals a maximum of 7 days is allowed to provide a valid insurance certificate.

Market Insurance: We offer full insurance services. Please contact us for competitive rates.

- 3 COST OF BEING IN THE MARKET / METHOD OF PAYMENT: Payments are charged per day and are subject to change and variations without notice. Payment for stalls must be made one month in advance either by cheque (Payable to Dublin City Markets), cash, or online using PayPal system on our web site www.dublincitymarkets.com. Note any stall not paid for, for whatever reason, will automatically forfeit their place in the market. Monies paid for stall days not used, are only refunded at the desecration of the market organisers.
- 4 STALL HOLDERS PAY A RENTAL for occupying part of a market site (a designated site decided by the market management) and on a certain day. Temporary occupation of that site by the Stall Holder on that day does not create or establish any right, lease, agreement, contract or easement on that site, and the stall holder is subject to removal and movement from any position within the market to any position the market management wish to move them to.

The Market Management reserve the right to remove any stall from the market, no matter how long they have been coming to that particular market, if in the judgement of the market management the stall in question no longer subscribes to the overall management policy of the market. The Market Management reserve the right to adjust and change the direction of management policy in any particular market without consultation with the market stalls.
- 5 MARKET TIMES: No stall holder is allowed to leave the market before the official closing time, as this creates an imbalance and disappointed customers, who arrive according to advertised opening times. Please note the organisers cannot guarantee a particular site in the market therefore it is important that stall holders arrive at least one hour before the market starts. Market opening times are on the website.

- 6 ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH: All food stalls are subject to environmental health regulations, it is the responsibility of each stall holder to be aware of the rules and regulations relating to their particular product. All food licences (where appropriate) must be valid and displayed prominently at front of stall. Due care and attention by stall holders and their agents with regard to stall hygiene is expected.
- 7 ORGANIC PRODUCTS IN THE MARKET: All organic products on sale in the market must be clearly labelled with an appropriate label. All organic stalls selling fresh food and meat must have a valid licence from an organic organisation authorised to regulate the sale of organic food. the licence must be on display at the front of the stall and within clear site of the customers.
- 8 All products in the market on display for sale must be clearly labelled for price, country of origin and quantity to comply with EU regulation.
- 9 FIXTURES & FITTINGS IN THE MARKET: Where stall holders move fixtures & fittings (including tables & chairs) belonging to third parties within the market, it is the stall holders responsibility to return them to their previous positions and to accept full responsibility for any damage. It is also the stall holders responsibility to pay all care and attention to all floor surfaces within the market, not to drag furniture or fittings across the floor bearing in mind that the cost of any restoration will be borne by the stall holder.
- 9 FIRE REGULATIONS: All stalls must comply with our Fire Regulations as laid down on our web site, www.dublincitymarkets.com
- 10 WEB PAGE: All stall holders joining the Dublin City Markets events are required to participate in a mandatory web page and links, which will be placed on the www.dublincitymarkets.com web site at a fixed monthly cost, payable at the beginning of each month. This is to increase the awareness of all products provided at the Dublin City Markets.

The Market organisers Dublin City Markets reserve the right to make alterations to the above conditions of entry into the markets as and when they deem necessary. Stall holders will be notified.

The Market organisers Irish Farmers Markets reserve the right to refuse permission for any person or persons to be in their premises for what ever reason.

Dublin City Markets

IRISH FARMERS' MARKETS

Market Conditions of Entry

I have read the above conditions and understand them. I agree to comply with conditions of entry into the market and understand that if I break any of the conditions I shall forfeit any place in the market.

Stall Name: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

Witness: _____